2010 Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo Queen Shelby Terry (center) learns about her new Nokia N97 mobile phone with expert guidance from Epic PCS sales consultants Andres Belandria and Marlene Holley. Epic PCS is sponsoring the current title-holder through her year-long reign by providing her with the wireless phone and service as she makes personal appearances at rodeos and other events across the country. Terry will be able to use Nokia N97 features such as touch screen, full keyboard, GPS, video and camera in her travels. Photo by Linda Ward
